

School Assembly Material

You can stream our narrated 25-minute video to show as a school-wide kick off assembly for your school's book drive. The video makes it easy for you, as the organizing teacher, to inform the school community about the extremely important cause and the book drive itself. Everyone will be inspired to get involved!

Some schools use the video for individual classroom presentations. However, we have found the most successful schools rally together in an assembly to generate excitement, maximizing your collection efforts.

The video link can be posted on your school website for parents to watch at home.
